Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burnett, Miss Maggie S. Cook, Mr. Judson Farmington, Mr. Isaac R. and Willie B. Peebles and all enjoyed a pleasant feast. Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Ross and son Wm. E. Ross Jr. were pleasant callers at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. Watson, also Mrs. Mattie Bradford. Among the sick members of the Auxiliary, Benevolent Order No. 191 are Masters Wesley Searcy, Buford Burnett and Miss Georgia Searcy and Thomas Fannings. On Sunday, January 28, 1917 at Solomon Chapel A. M. E. Church our pastor, Rev. S. F. Majors was found at his post of duty both in church and Sunday school, after the Sunday service by Supt. C. H. Simmons the preaching service began at 11:45 p. m. The pastor chose for a text, John 1:1 and 1st chapter and 1st verse from which he preached an able and well arranged sermon. The A. C. E. League met promptly at 6:30 p. m., with the following officers present: Rev. C. H. Simmons, president, Miss Lucy Mae Peebles, Secretary, Miss Mattie Bradford, Corresponding Secretary, Miss Byrd Foster, Statistical Secretary and a number of members and friends engaged in discussion of the various topics promptly at 8 p. m., preaching services began, the pastor preached another strong sermon from Matt. 5:14 and 15. Communion services after which passed into history a high day in Zion. Rev. S. F. Majors was the guest of Mrs. L. K. Peebles last Sunday. Among those on the sick list are Mrs. L. K. Henry Cannon, Mrs. Ethel McKelvey and Mrs. Jennie Burnett. The official Board met at Solomon Chapel A. M. E. Church on Monday night, January 29, and participated in a good meeting.

LAWRENCEBURG.

Mr. Jordan Welch, one of the best known citizens of this county, died at his home in "West Point" Wednesday of pneumonia. Mr. Welch illness was quite short, he is survived by a wife and several children to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy. Mrs. Brooks from Nashville is in the city visiting her aunt and sister, Mrs. Callie Bumpas and Mrs. Laura Canady. Mr. Henry Twigs spent a few hours at his daughter's home, Mrs. Annie Buchanan this week. Mr. Twigs is a successful farmer in the 14th district. We are glad to report that Mrs. Bertha Tucker, Mrs. Mary Harrison, Mrs. Betty, Miss Esther Franks, and Mr. Andrew Davis are well again. Mrs. Enda Steele and baby are doing nicely, they are still all smiles. The sick are as follows: Mrs. Andrew Allen, Mrs. Rissa Neal, Mrs. Alice Ray, Mr. Abe Chaffing, Mr. John Esters, Mr. Felix Neal, Mr. Benjamin Wisfall, we wish them a speedy recovery. We had fine services today. Rev. C. C. Cade and Dr. J. W. Sebastian occupied their respective pulpits. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bumpas entertained at dinner Sunday, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Sebastian, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Burrows are well. Our doctor is kept quite busy these days. Mrs. Burrows' class in music and literary studies is doing nicely. Mr. Ferdinand Crowder visited his mother, Mrs. Nora Crowder this week, he reported leaving his wife in "Palaski" we are in sympathy with his Lawrenceburg lady friends. If you have not subscribed for the GLOBE do so at once if you want to be numbered as a progressive citizen of Tennessee.

KEELING.

Mr. Sam Jones and Miss Orena Jones were united in happy wedlock, Sunday evening, January 27 at Free-donia Baptist Church. It was witnessed by a number of their friends. Mrs. Annie McBride is sick this week, also Mrs. Lela Melvin. We wish for them a speedy recovery. Mr. George Nor-mal met with a sad accident on last Friday, his house caught fire and burned down. But they save with the help of their neighbors most of their household goods. Lately and you will hear some more wedding bells ringing around Keeling. The many faces that were all smiles over the beautiful weather turned into frowns on Thursday and Friday. We are sorry to see the ground have had a shadow on Friday if it wasn't too cold for him to come out.

MR. FRANK G. SMITH, JR., FIRST TO SHOW RACE PRIDE.

Mr. Frank G. Smith, Jr. was the first man to show race pride at the Grand opening of the Great Northern Place, he bought many things during the day, much credit is due this young man. He is at all times willing to co-operate with anything for the upbuilding of his race.

MT. CARMEL.

The King Hill Sunday school has elected a very competent Faculty of teachers for this year. Bro. Jas. Jones was elected to fill Bro. Jas. O. Davis' place as Supt. Bro. Jim Lemmons assistant. Bro. G. S. Somerville will fill Bro. Wm. Alexander's place as No. 1 teacher. Sister Sallie Jones was elected No. 2 teacher. Prof. J. C. Somerville was elected No. 3 teacher. Miss Ethel Love Secretary. Prof. J. C. Somerville was elected Church Clerk. We hope our Church and Sunday school will go on to success under the leadership of Rev. Wm. Mebane as pastor with able and well qualified band of officers and teachers. Mr. and Mrs. Hess Malone moved from Covington into our community Wednesday 31. The little nine month old child of Mr. Joe Frazier died on Tuesday night the 30th and was buried in Mt. Olive A. M. E. Cemetery on Wednesday 31. Don't forget to see Alexander the tailor for your spring suit, you will find the Globe at his place of business. The Rev. Wm. Kimball filled his pulpit at Mt. Olive A. M. E. Church Sunday and preached a strong sermon. A very large crowd was out. Rev. Kimball is a new man in our midst, we hope his stay with us this Conference year will be a pleasant one. Everybody seems to be in line with him. The two year old child of Mr. Tom Moore is very ill at this writing with a severe attack of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Jas Matthews spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Mary Shaw in East Bottom. Thursday and Friday of last week was the two coldest days we have witnessed in our section this season. Our community was visited by a severe dust and snow storm Sunday. Don't be the cow's tail; see me and get the Globe, agent, W. M. Alexander.

SOUTH PITTSBURG

The weather is just awfully cold here at present. The people are all very busily engaged in making fires and taking up ashes. The work hands at the foundries are all off for vacation during this severe cold weather, they are just walking around with their Sunday clothes and over coats on with their hands in their pockets standing and sitting around viewing the earth which is so beautifully covered with snow and ice. The doctor is almost scared out of his wits for fear he may get a call before the weather moderates. A few of the ladies of South Pittsburg were invited to Richard City last Thursday to visit the Ladies' Carnation Art Club. Those among them who went from here were Mrs. W. J. Atsapp, Mrs. J. J. McHenry and Mrs. J. D. Martin. The Ladies Art Club met at the residence of Mrs. Ellen Chubbs, these ladies are certainly doing a commendable business in their club. The ladies who went from here returned filled with inspiration and say they mean to organize themselves in a similar manner. After the work hour a two course menu was served by the hostesses, everybody enjoyed them. Show that he had pride and night thrift in managing. He lived a consistent Christian, and ideal citizen and model husband and father abroad and at home. Indicative of how many friends he and family had won, was the very large number of men women and children who gathered at Travelers' Rest Church to pay their last respect to his body, which was laid to rest in the Travelers' Rest cemetery. He leaves behind a wife, a daughter, who is now Mrs. Esther B. Jefferson and 4 sons, Herbert, Jerry, Caleb and Leo to mourn their loss. His youngest son, Leo is now a student in the Training School at Somerville. As these lines go to the printer a quiet wedding is being solemnized near by. The names of the contracting parties will be mentioned later. Tuesday night, January 23, was quite a nice night for Mr. B. R. Flippin when he was served in his home with a three course menu as a celebration of his 70th birthday. Many in our vicinity have been sick, but most are convalescing. Mr. Sylvester Leath returned from Memphis last week. Those who are away from new year trips are Mr. Frank Jones and Miss Sallie Moss. The weather man is giving us some winter. Some of the aged ones report that it surpasses any cold weather witnessed in many years. Owing to the inclement weather the school kids are suffering somewhat. Last Thursday made many shiver from cold. Miss Pauline Danridge, Emily Flippin, Nannie Jones, Booker and Robert Danridge are the largest pupils in school. This class is arranging a Washington's Birthday program which promises to be very interesting. When winter breaks the writer promises a more interesting letter.

GREENFIELD.

Prof. N. N. Reynolds, State Grand Lecturer for K. of P. and Court of Calanthes, will be here Friday, Feb. 16. He will lecture to Junvilles at 2 p. m., to the Calanthes at 3 p. m., and we are expected to have him make a public lecture at night, near the school house. Everybody is cordially invited. Refreshments may be on hand for sale. Our church work has been cut off a deal for the past few weeks on account of inclement weather. Remember the Big Banquet that Calanthes will give for the Knights at A. M. E. Church on Thursday night, Feb. 22, (Washington's Birthday). The admission to the public is 25 cents each, all eating free. You are surely invited to this occasion, as the Calanthes will surely make this a grand affair. A little program will also be rendered. Visiting Knights and Calanthes honorary guest. The school children had a school dinner on Monday, the 5th, a crowd was out and a splendid dinner was served. Hope to have an other one later on. Mrs. Jane Toch has been right sick for more than a week. La Grippe is the complaint. A "Storm Party" visited Rev. A. Vann and family, pastor of the A. M. E. Church. This was much appreciated, and it is hoped that the "Cloud" is gathering again for another "Storm." Little Jessie Crout is reported quite ill. Remember the Calanthes Banquet Feb. 22 at the A. M. E. Church.

BROWNSVILLE.

Mr. Jas. L. Wood who is attending the West Tennessee Medical University at Memphis is home on the account of illness. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery that he may resume his studies soon. Mrs. Lella (Smith) Hesse of Chicago is home on account of illness. Mr. Jas. Hesse accompanied his wife home and will spend a few days with his Mother, Mrs. Priscilla Hesse. Mrs. Hesse is at home with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Harding Smith. Vera, their charming little daughter accompanied her parents. Mrs. Hesse's many friends wish for her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Ethel Hill is much improved at this writing. Mr. Jas. Crosby, the well known sonster and actor, left Saturday for Savannah, Ga. where he is to spend a few days with a well known company. We wish him a bounded success while traveling. Mrs. J. H. Coleman was called to Memphis recently to the bedside of her little niece who is quite ill. While in the city she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Transum. Mrs. Coleman is one of our recent brides who was Miss Eva Jones or her marriage Messrs. Dick Morgan and J. Irving went the weekend in Nashville, the former visiting his daughter, Miss Ellen Morgan who is attending the A. and I. State Normal. Miss Morgan is one of Haywood County's most accomplished young women. Mr. T. G. Robertson of Dyersburg was the pleasant guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sirrette several days of last week. Little William, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hays, is very sick. He has been in the hospital for a long time. The Little Petro Bond who has been very sick of Measles is much improved. Mr. T. G. Robertson of Dyersburg was the pleasant guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Porter on last Wednesday. The Young Peoples Improvement Society met last Tuesday evening at the First Baptist Church. A most excellent program was rendered. A large number was present. Mr. T. G. Robertson of Dyersburg, made some very interesting and instructive remarks. This society has done and is doing a very commendable work. They have purchased a lovely carpet for the choir stand and the aisles of the church recently. Mr. Will Leigh is the able and strong young man who is the president of this society. Rev. A. A. Parr delivered a very effective sermon last Sunday on "Prayer." Long will the message remain with the hearers. Mr. Elijah Brown of Chicago, Ill., is a welcome visitor in our city. Mrs. C. E. Lynk and her attractive little daughter, Gladys have returned home after spending more than a week in Memphis while in the Bluff City Mrs. Lynk was the recipient of many social courtesies. Miss Myrtle Taylor and Mr. Austin Bond were quietly married recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asie D. Owen on Depot St. The Little is a sister of the Measles. We wish them a long and prosperous life. Read the Globe and keep in touch with your friends and keep pace with the time. Mrs. Sallie Crews is indisposed. The Parent-Teachers Association meets Thursday afternoon of this week in the channel of Dunbar High school. Mrs. Dick Powell is some improved at this writing. She has been seriously ill for some time.

WARREN

One of the most horrible disasters almost unimaginable happened in this vicinity last Tuesday, Jan. 30. Mr. Albert Howell, a progressive planter and respected citizen of our neighborhood was killed by a falling tree. Mr. Howell came into this community about 25 years ago. During this time he made his home among us, and built a friendship so strong that it was quite a shock to us to be served from his association. Indeed his place among us will be hard to fill. He owned a modest country home, equipped with those things which go to show that he had pride and night thrift in managing. He lived a consistent Christian, and ideal citizen and model husband and father abroad and at home. Indicative of how many friends he and family had won, was the very large number of men women and children who gathered at Travelers' Rest Church to pay their last respect to his body, which was laid to rest in the Travelers' Rest cemetery. DID COL. CARTER STORY CAUSE DEATH VERDICT?

MURDERER'S LAWYER SAYS READING TO JURY INTIMIDATED JUSTICE

Was justice intimidated through racial prejudice in the jury room where twelve men decided Earnest Wallace, a Negro, must hang for the murder of Jacob Levine and William Monroe in a saloon at Twenty-seventh and Federal streets on the night of June 17, 1916?

Evidence which may remove Wallace from the shadow of the gallows and which Attorney O. J. C. Wray, his attorney, says proves the jury was prejudiced by its foreman has been placed before Judge George B. Barrett, who has since September 27, last, been considering the condemned man's motion for a new trial. A hearing on the motion is slated for today.

Tells Goose Story.

This evidence is in the shape of a sworn affidavit to the effect that the foreman of the jury, Albert Grauer of Sears, Roebuck and Co., told the jury the "story about the goose that is related in 'Col. Carter of Cartersville,'" and that he told the defendant's counsel the day after the death verdict.

"You know all colored people are liars, and they are untruthful liars." A second affidavit is sworn to by Rodrick W. Mason, son of Congressman "Billy" Mason, another member of the death jury, asserting that he heard Grauer tell Attorney Wray about telling the Col. Carter story in the jury room. A third affidavit not yet presented in court contains an admission by Grauer that he told the story to the jurors.

Attorney Wray contends that the "story about Col. Carter of Cartersville" was meant by the jury foreman to prejudice the other members by inciting their race prejudice.

Will Carry it Higher.

"I maintain," said Mr. Wray, "that justice was intimidated by this story, which is full of race prejudice, and that it had a bearing on the verdict itself. The United States Supreme Court has held that such is the case. There could not have been an impartial verdict rendered after Grauer told the jury that story, and the constitution says that every defendant is entitled to this. If we are not granted a new trial I shall carry the case to the United States Supreme Court if necessary."

Wray asserts five prominent business men, whose names he declines to announce, have interested themselves in the case, and are willing to spend a large sum to fight for the freedom of Wallace. These men, he says, took up the fight after Grauer had signed his affidavit concerning his actions in the jury room, and the obtaining of more evidence, which Wray says, will prove that the condemned man was not near the saloon at the time of the double murder.

Testimony Disproved.

The testimony of John Porter, who was the state's star witness, identifying Wallace as the murderer, has been disproved by affidavits of persons of the underworld, Wray says. Wray charges that Wallace was arrested for the murder solely upon Porter's charge and that he now can prove that Porter was not in the saloon when the shootings occurred. Porter was held in jail as a witness, but disappeared following the trial and cannot be found.

Wray further charges that he has information that Wallace's arrest was the result of a feud with the police, who sought to "hang something upon him and used him to put this crime upon in order to do it."

Arrested on the Way Home.

Wallace was arrested at Thirty-second and Third streets while on his way home when he was pointed out to the police by Porter.

Three other men beside Levine and Monroe, the murdered men, were in the saloon at the time of the shooting. They were Edward Green, former state representative; John Crawford, state representative; John Longport, a Negro, who testified that the man who did the shooting was masked. Porter testified that the slayer was unmasked—Ex change. Clipped from Chicago Paper.
